

Enticing Art

Davidson is a creative and colorful community with an artistic and cultural vibe that brings energy and life to our streets.

Dance of Life

Davidson College Art Galleries

Organized around a central, light-filled atrium, the 43,000 square-foot Katherine and Tom Belk Visual Arts Center at Davidson College, offers abundant teaching, studio, office, meeting, work, storage, and gallery space. The centerpiece of the atrium is Auguste Rodin's life-size statue Jean d'Aire one of six figures from his famous monument of The Burghers of Calais sculpted in 1886.

The William H. Van Every and Edward M. Smith Galleries are located on either side of the front entrance to the Belk Visual Arts Center at Davidson College. The Davidson College Art Galleries consist of 2,000 sq. ft. of space for presentation, interpretation, and discussion of primarily contemporary artworks. The permanent art collection serves as a resource for teaching and learning with more than 3,500 works of art spanning more than five centuries. Hours are M-F 10AM-5PM and weekends 12PM-4PM.

315 North Main Street | Davidson, NC 28036
www.davidsoncollegeartgalleries.org

AVA Gallery

This award-winning gallery features the finest art of this region. This gallery aims to consistently exhibit a high standard of contemporary art which may appeal to the lifelong collector or first-time buyer. Personal collection development and on-site consultation also available. Hours are Friday 12PM-8PM; Saturday 9AM-8PM

108 S. Main Street | Davidson, NC 28036
615-243-6910 | www.avagalleries.com

Wooden Stone Gallery

This 2,500 square foot gallery showcases and eclectic mix of of hand-made jewelry, pottery, glassware, furniture, paintings and prints, wooden bowls and boards, home decor, and fiber art. The gallery represents close to 600 Artists from the United States and Canada, over 100 of which are from the Carolinas. This is the perfect place to find unique crafted works of art.

445 S Main Street #200 | Davidson, NC 28036
704-892-1449 | www.woodenstonegallery.com